The Station Director's Office, personnel from four of the Station's Divisions, and the Station Library will be located in the two-story section of this building. In the one-story section of the building, there will be an assembly and class room, and a cafeteria.
17 ENGINEERING BUILDING

The Station Director's Office, personnel from four of the Station's Divisions, and the Station Library are located in the two story section of this building. The one story section houses the Station cafeteria and a multipurpose area which can be used for an assembly area or class rooms.