$$D = C_d \times \frac{\rho \times V^2}{2} \times A$$

Drag = coefficient x density x velocity squared x reference area two

Coefficient Cd contains all the complex dependencies and is usually determined experimentally.

Choice of reference area A affects the value of Cd.